Special Regulations

AK: Raw milk may be legally obtained through “share” operations.

AR: Allows 100 gallons of raw, liquid goat milk to be sold from the farm each month.

CO: Raw milk may be legally obtained through “share” operations.

KS: Allows sales directly to the consumer on the farm with minimal on-farm advertising.

MO: Allows farmers to deliver to farmers’ market but not to stores.

OR: On-farm sales of raw cow’s milk only from farms with no more than two producing cows, nine producing sheep, and/or 9 producing goats allowed. Only goat milk is allowed at retail off-farm.

SC: Allows sale of raw milk both on and off the farm and at a farmers’ market if a permit is obtained. Farmers must provide retail stores with a warning plaque to be displayed in front of the raw milk.

SD: Allows farmers to deliver to farmers’ market but not to stores.

TN: Raw milk may be legally obtained through “share” operations.

UT: Requires store to be owned by the producer, but can be located off of the farm.

VT: In addition to selling raw milk on the farm, if the farmers comply with further standards, they are also allowed to deliver to retail stores. Raw milk sales are prohibited at farmers’ markets and advertising is not restricted.
